

The Louvre – Arts Council Showdown

Intro:

Theory. Replication. Creation. The three principles of art are the final pillars of artistic expression in a culture that seeks to demolish it. Send in your best to compete against each other in The Louvre, an institutional compulsory sub-event testing all five forms of art: Literature, Art, Media, Music, and Drama.

Round 1 - Theory

Round Details: Surprise Round

This round is a mystery round, but delegates can expect to be tested on all forms of art theory. Teams will need to be composed in such a way that they have knowledge of literature, art, drama, media and music to gain the upper hand.

Final Round - Replication and Creation

Round Details: Surprise Round

This round is a mystery round, and will be revealed after the first round. Delegates can expect to work on a single mega-project, involving all of the five categories of art, to be submitted on the last day.

All rules and regulations will be revealed on the days of the event.