Literary Mystique
Literature

Intro

"Literary Mystique" is an intellectually stimulating sub-event of JT Muse designed for literature enthusiasts. The event challenges participants through three rounds, testing literary knowledge, creativity, and critical analysis. Delegates are required to use buzzin.live for Round 1, so please ensure it's ready before the event starts.

Round 1: Discerning the Classics (Buzzer Round)

Description:
A fast-paced buzzer-based quiz where participants differentiate between quotes from classic literature and modern media. The round has three phases with increasing difficulty.
Time: 2 hours 30 minutes
Delegate Cap: 4 per team
Judgment Criteria:
Based on quick recall and correct identification of quotes. Negative points are given for incorrect answers.
Outcome:
Scores determine the passage selection order in Round 2. This is a non-elimination round.

Round 2: Shakespearean Theme Transformation (Elimination Round)

Description:
Teams reimagine a passage from Shakespeare under a new thematic lens provided by the organizers.
Time: 2 hour
Delegate Cap: 3 per team
Judgment Criteria:
- Creativity in Theme Transformation
- Fidelity to Shakespearean Style
- Cohesion and Clarity
- Language and Expression
Outcome:
 Teams are judged on their ability to balance creative reinterpretation with respect for the original text. The highest-scoring teams move to the final round. This is an elimination round.

Round 3: Twisted Poem Challenge (Elimination Round)

Description:
Participants write a poem incorporating a randomly selected movie quote. They must also provide a written analysis of how the quote was integrated.
Time: 1 hour for poem writing, 1 hour for analysis
Delegate Cap: 3 per team
Judgment Criteria:
- Creativity
- Incorporation of Movie Quote
- Cohesion and Flow
- Language and Style
- Analysis
Outcome:
The team with the most cohesive and creative poem wins. This is an elimination round.
